

NJIT Spring 2008 Career Fair

Wednesday, March 12, 2008

American Bridge

Construction

Organization Profile:	A leader in construction of notable structures throughout the USA and abroad. Committed to maintaining competitive advantage through engineering innovation, and large-scale self-performed capabilities.
Address:	1000 American Bridge Way Coraopolis, PA 15108
Webpage:	www.americanbridge.net
Hiring:	BS MS
Majors of Interest:	CE
Position Type(s):	Full-Time, Co-op, Summer, Internship
Position Title(s):	Field Engineer, Coop/Internship
Position Descriptions:	As an engineer with American Bridge, you will have the opportunity to advance your career working with the industry's most experienced professionals. You will be involved with the development and execution of advanced means and methods for complex bridges, and other marine and military construction. You will benefit from an engineering library containing thousands of structures from around the world. You will be stationed at project sites that will enable you to see and experience the world. American Bridge Field Engineers will be expected to assist the Project Engineer with on-site engineering and controls, processing and distribution of project documentation, review of shop drawings for conformance to specifications, assembling operation and maintenance schedules, assisting with coordination of subcontractors, field payroll, cost coding, submittals and RFIs.